The NDIA collects, analyses and reports on a wide range of information about the experiences of participants, their families and carers.

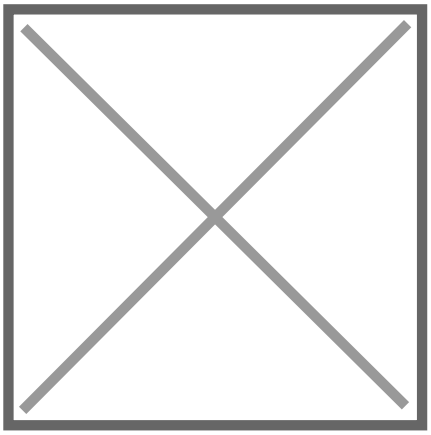

Quarterly reports to the disability ministers can be found on the quarterly reports page .

Reports and in-depth analyses

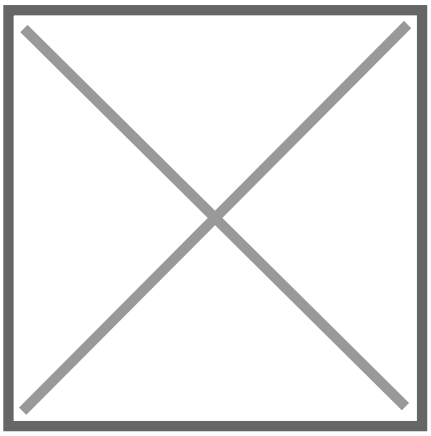

Participant dashboards

This dashboard series includes summary reports and accompanying data downloads for 13 primary disability types.

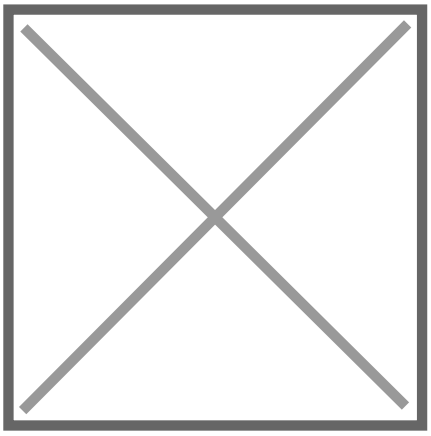

The NDIS in focus

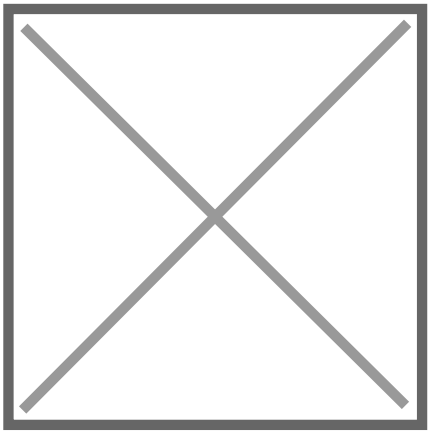

Market monitoring

The NDIS market report compares a number of market indicators across geographical regions and participant characteristics

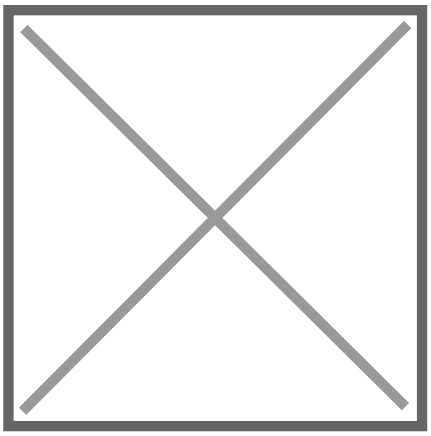

Outcomes and goals

Goals identified by NDIS participants, along with their achieved outcomes, and the outcomes of their families and carers

Other reports and analyses

SDA data

This page current as of
2 December 2024