Related research

Using capacity building supports to help make individualised living a reality

The NDIA and Scope completed a research project and wrote a report called ‘Having a go: Exploring the use of supports to make individualised living a reality.’

Find out more

Transitions from group homes, institutional care and residential aged care

This evidence review looks at what might help people with disability to move from institutional care, group homes or congregate care to more individualised living arrangements. It explores the challenges people may face and identifies the approach needed to help people transition and improve outcomes.

Read the evidence review

Environmental scan of specialist disability accommodation

This research explores how SDA might best meet the needs of people with significant and permanent disability.

Read the research

Home and Living Demonstration Project Evaluation

These evaluations provide analysis of the Round 1, Home and Living Demonstration Projects. The data is ongoing, with projects expected to close in June 2024

Read the reports

Other research areas

- Early interventions and high volume cohorts
- Market stewardship and employment
- Research that helps us improve the NDIS
- Improving outcomes for participants